BALTIMORE MUSEUM OF INDUSTRY

(BMI)

The field trip to the BMI is "on" again for the EEIG members and friends for Saturday, March 15. The tour starts at 10 am, but all are asked to be there at 9:45 am for assembly. The tour, with docent, will be approximately 1.5 hours long and includes all, if not most, of the facilities galleries. It is important that you email me at rodosack@verizon.net before February 23 of your intentions to attend, since a deposit was made to hold the date/time with a minimum person count. The admission fee is $8 for adults and $6 for seniors that can be paid at the BMI at arrival. The BMI is located at

1415 Key Highway
Inner Harbor South
Baltimore, MD 21230

RESEARCH SHOW AND TELL

At the meeting we would like all members to bring in some of their research results to show the rest of the group. As all genealogists know, our research is never "finished", but we'd like to see what you have so far. Whether you've completed a wall-sized pedigree chart or have notebooks full of family group sheets and other documents, please bring an example to share with the group. Some researchers have already compiled books or photo albums showcasing their research. Even if you're still a novice genealogist, it can be useful for others to see what you've done with your information.

Some folks prefer a more visual or creative display than pedigree charts and group sheets. Perhaps you've made a quilt or a photo collage for one of your ancestral lines. Maybe your family history is intimately connected to the history of a parish, neighborhood or community, and you have notebooks of newspaper clippings documenting it. Bring in a sample to display and discuss it with our members. We can all get new ideas and learn something from each other's work.
